Open Night Ceramics Tuesday Evenings 5-9

Class meets from 5-9. There is a minimum of 5 seniors to hold this class. Children must be 8+ years of age to participate. Cost for seniors is $5 firing/supplies per month plus greenware; children $5 per month for firing/supplies, plus cost of greenware.

You may choose from pieces ready to paint, or you may clean your own greenware. You are welcome to join us at any time between 5-9.

Utah State Fair September 16, 11:00 am; $10

Our State Fair is a great state fair! The Salt Lake City Fair Grounds is the destination for this excursion.

Not only do the Fair exhibits represent the best of the best throughout the state, there's plenty of other fun activities to enjoy. The agenda includes the Welde's Bear Show, Live Shark Encounter, Alligator Show, Mark Colp—the Chainsaw Carver, entertainment and lots of great food (Dutch).

Join us for a fun day at the fair.

The Nashville Tribute Band September 21, 5:30 pm; $13

The Nashville Tribute Band is performing in concert to raise funds for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

The Nashville Tribute Band has performed for over 250,000 people throughout the United States and Australia. You hear their music every week locally on "The Sounds of Sunday."

This one night only concert offers inspirational music and testimony. It is at the Bear River High School Auditorium.

This should be a great evening of inspiring music.

Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus September 24, 5:00; $15

"Come to the circus and cast your cares away." Lyrics from the famous circus song invite us to do just that on this excursion. Through the mystery of magic and the mastery of skill, audiences will be spellbound as Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey presents "Zing, Zang, Zoom!" This trill-filled, mind-blowing circus spectacular offers a once in a lifetime occasion of fun for all ages.

We will stop at Wendy's and grab a hamburger on the way down. Join us and feel like a kid again.

Health Fair September 30; Flu Shots; 9-12

The Senior Center is hosting a Health Fair and flu shots on September 30. Make sure that you bring your Medicare card, your Rx card, and your SS card to receive your shot. Drive-by shots will also be available if you are unable to get out of your vehicle.

There will be many booths offering information for your health care needs.

Be informed. Be healthy.

Breakfast with a Witch October 1, 7:30 am; $15

Start your Fall festivities off with Breakfast with a Witch at Gardner Village's Witchapalooza Dining Hall at The Gathering Place. Enjoy a delicious breakfast buffet of fresh fruit, frighteningly fluffy scrambled eggs, haunted hash browns, bewitching bacon, paranormal pancakes, Frankenstein's French Toast, and of course your favorite bubbling beverage of hot cocoa, coffee or orange juice. As you dine, our whimsical witches will entertain with wonders and cackles. They'll mingle with you signing autograph sheets, taking pictures and casting spells.

After breakfast at the Village, you will have a couple of hours to explore and shop. It will be a fun morning. Don't forget to wear your witches hat, and join in on the fun.

Bar J Wranglers October 22; $25

The seniors are going to see the famous Bar J Wranglers on October 22, 2009. They will be performing at Bear River High School. The cost is $25 per person; includes front row seats and transportation.

Come join us for western music and a stand-up comedy show with masterful cowboy music. You'll agree it's the best musical experience in the west. The Bar J Wranglers from Jackson Hole, Wyoming, deliver some of the purest harmony, best musicianship and funniest ranch humor ever seen on stage. As soon as the Bar J Wranglers take to the stage, listeners leave behind their busy life and settle into a time long ago -- a time of the singing cowboy.

Sign up early with Sarah.
